Program

- THE INSUYU CAVE: 10 Km south on the road to Antalya, is 1960 feet long, with nine distinct pools and chambers filled with stalactites and stalagmites. -Lunch break consisting of a traditional three course Central Anatolian Turkish meal.
- PAMUKKALE (HIERAPOLIS): One of the three important ancient settlements dating back from the second century, BC. Hierapolis had once been the center of the religious affairs. That's where this site got its name: The Holy City. A Magical and spectacular natural site, unique in the world, is a fairyland of dazzling white, petrified castles. Thermal spring waters laden with calcareous salts running off the plateau's edge have created this fantastic formation of stalactites, cataracts and basins. The hot springs have been used since Roman times for their therapeutic powers. Both the thermal center, with its motels and thermal pools, and the ruins of the ancient city of Hierapolis will be visited.
- A short swimming break shall be given in the thermal pools.
- Return to the Fleet Landing at 20.00 hrs.
